

The QuicShine99 Best Appearing Car award was a specific honor in the ARCA RE/MAX Series, famously awarded to the Michael Kranefuss team (often associated with driver Shawna Robinson) around the 2000 season.

- Context: The award was presented during the ARCA awards banquet to honor teams with superior car presentation and aesthetics.
- Significance: In 2000, this award was highlighted alongside top points finishers, noting the high-quality appearance of the Michael Kranefuss team entry.
- Decal Placement: In the 1990s and early 2000s, the QuicShine99 logo was a sponsor, particularly seen on cars at Southern races like Atlanta.

The phrase "Best Appearing Car" is still used today in various racing series, such as the CARS Tour Throwback and the Chili Bowl, but the specific QuicShine99 Award was prominent in the 2000 ARCA season.
